INTRODUCTION

This report is structured as an Executive Summary and Appendices. The Executive Summary is a brief synopsis of the data provided by the County, our evaluation of the existing facilities, feedback provided by County staff and elected officials, and the major outcomes and conclusions of the study. The Appendices include information that was utilized in evaluating the jail and other components of the Study and the proposed solution. The process by which this study was undertaken is listed below.

PROCESS

RQAW Corporation, HWC and Garmong (the Team) were retained by the Jefferson County Board of Commissioners to study the twenty (20) year adult detention needs in Jefferson County and how those needs may be satisfied through the construction (or renovation) of a jail facility. Several objectives were identified for the study and they include but are not limited to:

- Determine the immediate and projected growth to establish County Jail requirements to the year 2028 and 2038.
- Provide a detailed architectural program for the Jail and Sheriff's Office
- Assess the current justice system and jail statistics including but not limited to the types of crimes, offenders and classification of jail inmates
- Review all pertinent data concerning the present jail (size, deficiencies, and inspection reports) and assess the feasibility of continued use with renovation or expansion as required for a feasibly economical operation
- Estimate probable construction and project costs and staffing projections for the construction of a new Jail and Sheriff's Office facility.
- Prepare and analyze financing and funding alternatives for the construction of any proposed facility.
- Evaluate multiple sites for the construction of a new facility

To undertake this study and accomplish the stated objectives, a detailed process was followed. The following summarizes the process by which the Team and the County conducted this study.

The process and this report are organized in two specific phases.

- PHASE I: HISTORICAL/CURRENT DATA COLLECTION (IDENTIFYING THE PROBLEMS)
- PHASE II: ARCHITECTURAL PROGRAM/RECOMMENDATION (SOLUTION)

The data collection portion of the report summarizes the input and data collected reflecting the criminal justice system in place in Jefferson County. To support the findings of the data summaries, supplemental information regarding interviews with county officials and project methodologies have been included. The information collected and developed in PHASE I was then used to develop a detailed architectural program that itemizes the general and specific planning issues and conceptual design criteria for the proposed project solution. Additional input through interviews was sought from the Sheriff's Office and Jail personnel at this stage of the study as well. Included in PHASE II of the study is the Probable Construction Cost and the Operational Costs associated with the proposed project solution.

A detailed outline of the process follows:

PLANNING PROCESS/METHODOLOGY

PHASE I

Phase I: Strategic Planning

1. Step 1: Planning Process/Methodology

The primary objective of the first step of the Study is to provide organization for the process while establishing the goals and direction the county wishes to take in the development of the Feasibility Study.

a. Organization/Communication-The Study team shall:

- i. Organize and facilitate meetings with the Jail Committee.
- ii. Develop reporting and accounting procedures for all aspects of the project.
- iii. Confirm the scope of the Feasibility Study.
- iv. Confirm a preliminary schedule.

b. Mission Statement – The Study team shall:

- i. Develop a mission statement for the Jail and Community Corrections
- ii. Develop short and long-range planning goals.

2. Step 2: Data Collection

The primary objective of the second step of the Feasibility Study is to collect and summarize the data (provided by the courts, jail, etc.) and establish the immediate space needs and adult (inmate) population projections to be used as a basis to determine the detailed architectural program for each element of the project. During this step, a facility evaluation will be conducted to optimize the efficiency of the existing facility, understand the operations and challenges of the existing facility and utilize this information as a planning tool for the proposed facility. The following items will be addressed:

a. Inmate Population Projections – Develop criteria to be utilized to determine the space needs, capacity, support spaces and services required for adult detention facilities. Elements to consider include:

- i. Interview key criminal justice personnel. Conduct interviews with Judges, Sheriff, Jail Commander and staff, Prosecutor, Auditor, Probation Department, State Jail Inspector (Reports) and other County Officials
- ii. Review demographics and statistical data used to determine the inmate population
- iii. Review previous research studies and jail inspection reports
- iv. Collect jail statistics – collect and review average daily population, length of stay by offense, net bookings, felony and misdemeanor inmates, pre-trial, adult males and females in jail, DWI, weekenders and Work Release.
- v. Collect court statistics – collect and review court filing and dispositions. Review court processes to determine "local policy" and its impact on the jail operation and population.
- vi. Review current policies and procedures regarding jail operations including classification of inmates, housing inmates outside the county, inmate transportation and inmate transfer to court.

- vii. Determine county census for past 10-20 years and projected growth for the next 20 years. Consider other items that may impact or influence future county population growth.
- viii. Explore any criminal code revisions which may impact future Average Daily Population (ADP).
- ix. Inventory personnel/staffing.

3. Step 3: Facility Criteria

The primary objective of the third step is to compile the data collected in Step 2 into an Architectural Program that begins to establish the scope of the project. Size, site, character and cost will be developed in this step.

- a. Facility Evaluation/Program
 - i. Review existing facilities, document existing functional and code related deficiencies.
 - ii. Determine needs/components.
 - iii. Establish relationship of components.
 - iv. Determine spatial requirements and establish optimum square footage.
 - v. Develop detailed Architectural Program.
 - vi. Compare existing space available versus the project future needs.
 - vii. Review and evaluate the existing facilities' ability to accommodate the program.
 - viii. Compare existing cell count versus the component classification and standard requirements. Determine the most appropriate inmate housing mix.
 - ix. Determine future expansion capabilities.
 - x. Review standards to which any renovation, renovation/addition must conform. Determine the relative impact on conformance with ACA standards as compared to local state jail standards.
 - xi. Determine operational philosophy of the Facility
 - xii. Perform an analysis of all correctional processes.
 - a) Determine where updated processes and Procedures may provide efficiencies and cost savings.
- b. Site Evaluation
 - i. Establish criteria to evaluate the suitability of potential sites.
 - ii. Determine size requirements of site.
 - iii. Determine utility locations
 - iv. Determine expansion capabilities
 - v. Determine site access and provide vehicular and pedestrian separation for law enforcement vehicles and private vehicles.
 - vi. Analyze site cost.
- c. Master Plan – Develop conceptual drawings utilizing criteria established above to illustrate:
 - i. Renovation and expansion of existing jail or another suitable facility
 - ii. Construction of a new jail
 - iii. Develop short-term solutions
 - iv. Develop long-term solutions
 - v. Develop approach to phasing construction if required

- d. Project Cost Analyses –Prepare cost analyses of each option reflecting all costs associated with the solution, including:
 - i. Land acquisition
 - ii. Demolition
 - iii. Utility relocation
 - iv. Site improvement, such as sidewalks and parking lots
 - v. Potential Brownfield remediation costs
 - vi. Landscaping
 - vii. Construction costs
 - viii. Furnishings and equipment
 - ix. Professional compensation
 - x. Financing
 - xi. Develop expense of phased construction and/or inflation factors required because of deferred construction periods.
 - xii. Develop staffing/operational cost projections for all options.
- e. Funding and Financing Alternatives – Review alternatives for funding the capital costs of construction, as well as long-term, on-going operational costs.
 - i. Traditional public financing:
 - a) Property tax supported bond issue
 - b) Income/Sales tax supported bond issue
 - ii. Private Financing
 - a) Public/Private lease

4. Step 4: Preliminary/Final Report

This step is extremely important to the Study Team. It provides the first assemblage of all data accumulated and summary recommendations for the original goals and objectives of the Study for review prior to final recommendations and presentation of the Study document. Present Final Report to the Commissioners.

Jefferson County Jail Feasibility Study

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Team was charged with working with a Jail Committee to determine the needs of the Jefferson County Jail and Sheriff's Office. It was then the task of the Team, as architects and engineers, to develop a facility design that would meet the determined needs and improve the functionality and operations of the Jefferson County Jail.

DATA AND STATISTICS

As mentioned in the process description, the Team first collected data and interviewed key personnel and county officials to gain a clear understanding of the immediate jail housing demands and potential future needs. Generally, all the statistical information gathered shows that the factors that impact jail population have been increasing. Since 1990, Jefferson County's population has increased over eight percent (8%). When considering factors like the recent increase in manufacturing in the state and the population trend over the last eighty (80) years, there is no indication that the population will decrease over the next twenty years. It should also be mentioned that while the county's population is expected to rise to over 35,000 in the next twenty (20) years, Madison also is the largest city on the river between Cincinnati and Louisville, serving as the entertainment and cultural hub for the area. Over 55,000 people live within 15 miles of downtown Madison. While an increasing county population does not necessarily mean an increase in jail population, it can mean an increase in crime.

Similarly, the jail statistics show that jail population has been increasing and will continue to grow. Within the last nine (9) months, the Jefferson County Jail has had an Average Daily Population (ADP) of over 150. As of August 2018, approximately 157 are housed in the jail, which has a detention housing bed capacity of 109 rated beds. Over the last ten years, the jail has seen a two-hundred percent (200%) increase in its ADP. In 2017, the ADP totaled 140. Refer to Appendix A for more information on data and statistics.

There are several factors that impact the ADP and indicate that it will continue to increase. First, the number of Capital/Felony court filings is increasing. Over the past ten (10) years, this number has increased by forty-five percent (45%). An increase in the seriousness of offenses can have a significant impact on jail population because those charged tend to remain in jail for longer periods of time. Next, the number of women in jail has increased significantly over the past ten years. Since 2008, the number of women admissions at the jail has gone up forty-four percent (44%) from 25 to 36 in 2017. Another factor that significantly impacts the average daily population is the number of Level 6 felons the county must house that had previously been sent to the Department of Corrections. In 2018, the Jefferson County Jail housed eighteen (18) L6 inmates and this number is expected to rise in the future. This further indicates that the ADP will not decrease in the near future.

JEFFERSON COUNTY JUSTICE SYSTEM

When considering the need to expand a jail facility for additional bed space, it is prudent to ask, "Is there anything we can do differently to reduce the number of people in jail?" As part of this study, the Team and the Jail Committee has asked this question. In considering the Jefferson County Justice System, there are several indicators that confirm that the system is functioning in a cooperative and efficient manner.

It is important to note, that it has been stated that those that are incarcerated in the Jefferson County Jail, need to be in jail in the interest of public safety. Every program that is available and might have an impact on the number of people incarcerated is already being utilized. These programs include but are not limited to Moral Recognition Therapy; Moving On (Women's Program), Stop Abuse for Everyone (SAFE - for those convicted of domestic abuse, Coping with Anger, Courage to Change, PRIME for Life (substance abuse education), Lifesprings, Centerstone, Drug Court, Home Detention and Community Transition Program (CTP). This does not mean that those that play a significant role in the system are not constantly looking for other opportunities, it simply means that there are not changes that could be implemented today that would result in a significant decrease in inmates. There has been a suggestion across Indiana that there could be a change in bonding guidelines/bond amounts and that this could have a significant impact on the jail population. Jefferson County is one of the counties participating in the pilot program to determine the impact of this pre-trial assessment bond program. Based on feedback from Judges and Court Services, the changes in bonding guidelines per the assessment process does not change how many people are in the jail; it simply ensures that the “right” people are in jail. In Jefferson County, due to the use of the pilot program, those in jail are there because they have committed a significant and serious crime or are serious nuisance/repeat offenders. This also suggests that programs that are being used are already being utilized by those that want to take advantage of the opportunity and there is not an opportunity to further reduce the number of inmates in the jail with these programs. The criminal justice system in Jefferson County is working together effectively and utilizing all the programs available in an effective manner. The only factor that can be identified that might help reduce the inmate population is the potential of moving some cases through the system more quickly. However, if the few cases with extended lengths of stay were to be moved through the system more quickly, it should not be expected that there would be a significant reduction in average daily population.

EXISTING FACILITY OVERVIEW

RQAW Corporation also spent a considerable amount of time evaluating the Jefferson County Jail and interviewing jail personnel to better understand the opportunities and challenges of the existing facility. The facility was designed and is operated as a partial indirect supervised jail and an old linear style jail on multiple levels. Because this jail was designed to “fit” on an existing site and take advantage of the existing linear housing, it is staff intensive and the county has been written up during jail inspections for being understaffed. The jail consists of seven (7) blocks for a total of 109 detention housing beds. The blocks include two (2) blocks with indirect supervision cells/dormitories (on different levels), a women’s dormitory on another level, two (2) dormitories and two (2) linear style cell blocks. This configuration and block count makes it very difficult to properly classify inmates. Other than the lack of total bed count and the maintenance challenges, the inability to properly classify inmates is the most significant challenge for the jail.

EXISTING FACILITY CLASSIFICATION CHALLENGES

Classification, or segregation, enables the jail to separate inmates within a system that can lead to a safer and more manageable facility. Classification is a system by which the jail staff determines who should be housed with whom. For instance, it is a requirement that men and women be sight and sound separated. Within these two groups, the jail should also segregate the most violent from the non-violent. Other groups that are typically segregated include but are not limited to sex offenders, juveniles, those in treatment programs (Voluntary Chemical Addiction Program) and the mentally unstable, including the acute mentally ill. This type of segregation results in what is often referred to as a classification factor. For planning and operational purposes, this number is usually twenty percent (20%). This means that a 109-bed facility is at its operational capacity with 87 inmates, if properly classified. This is compounded at the Jefferson County facility by the limited number of cell blocks and limited variation in the bed counts within these blocks. There are typically much smaller groups that require segregation but there are no smaller housing units. The medical isolation cells and individual holding cells (in booking) are also used for segregation. Juveniles, women and mental health inmates are often housed in these units. This means that when there are those that require medical isolation, those being segregated in these areas must be moved to another area or cohoused with the general population. If there is a medical isolation need, juveniles that are being housed in this area would need to be moved. Regardless, using cells dedicated for medical is not an ideal way to manage classification needs. Also, within a female population, there are several classification groups that are all housed within one dormitory style unit. In response to the issue of overcrowding and classification, the jail utilizes other spaces, such as recreation, classroom and commissary as housing blocks. While this helps in dealing with the population issue, it takes spaces away from inmates that are helpful to rehabilitation and morale. Proper classification should be a significant consideration in the design of a new housing addition. The impact of PREA (Prison Rape Elimination Act) cannot be overstated and the requirements of this Act have the potential to be enforceable under newer standards within five (5) years.

EXISTING FACILITY MAINTENANCE CHALLENGES

Other observations that require attention include components that relate to the physical condition of the facility. These items, along with some of the programmatic deficiencies, have been categorized and documented on the graphic floor plan and in the photos in Appendix B. These items include fixtures that are easily vandalized, like fire protection sprinkler heads. The fixtures in the linear style area were being flooded and causing water to flow into the administration area below. A water management system was installed so that flushes are controlled by staff. In any new facility, a water management system should be considered. This would also help reduce usage and water costs. Access to fixtures is also challenging (small chases, etc.). While modifying this in the existing facility is difficult, any new construction should provide easy access for maintenance. Finally, the doors and locks require constant maintenance and contain very expensive replacement parts. A preventative maintenance program has helped reduce costs, but replacement should be considered.

EXISTING FACILITY ANNUAL JAIL INSPECTION REPORTS

The annual Jail Inspection Reports conducted by the Indiana Department of Corrections were reviewed. Each report indicated that the Jefferson County Jail had an excellent operation. The reports indicate that the jail was over capacity and have noted that the jail is understaffed. The reports point out the difficulty in classifying inmates when the jail population exceeds 80% of the rated capacity and they note that this compromises the safety and security of the jail. Refer to Appendix B for the inspection reports.

PROGRAMMING, MENTAL HEALTH AND OTHER SUPPORT SPACES

Several programmatic needs were identified as well. The existing facility significantly lacks space dedicated to mental health and programming. As mentioned earlier, one of the major efforts for those in jail involves treatment and other programs. These programs include but are not limited to church, GED, Alcoholics Anonymous, Narcotics Anonymous and other addiction programs. Because of the existing jail configuration, there is only one classroom that can be utilized and there are views into this space from the common, secure corridor area, which therefore does not provide sight and sound separation. This area is currently being used for additional housing.

Probably the best opportunity that Jefferson County has to slow the growth of the jail population is through a reduction in recidivism and these drug related programs can play a significant role. There are anecdotal reports that a lot of the crimes, other than direct drug offenses (possession, dealing, etc.), are drug related. Crimes like robberies, assaults and shootings often are the result of the drug epidemic, including meth and opioids. Therefore, a focus on space where these programs can be effectively administered, in a more therapeutic environment, should be included in any future designs. Proper classification, as previously described, and abundant classrooms spaces for programs can help reduce the criminogenic effect and in turn, reduce the recidivism rate. Refer to the Architectural Space Program for more information (Appendix D)

Since 2010, Indiana has lost ninety (90) mental health beds, which accounts for ten percent of the mental health beds that were available in 2010. This deinstitutionalizing of the mentally ill and closing of mental hospitals has had a significant impact on county jails. Judges and Sheriffs have been faced with having to “lock up” the acute mentally ill in the interest of public safety because there is currently no other option. There needs to be better options for these people and a jail expansion will not solve this problem. However, in the meantime, there is a need for additional padded cells and meeting space for counselors, case managers and the inmates they serve.

Additional space that the facility would benefit from includes jail staff offices, more video court holding (including inmate toilets), space for a body scanner, additional fingerprinting/mugshot in booking and additional attorney/client meeting space closer to housing.

POSSIBLE SOLUTION COMPONENTS

As part of the study, the Team and the Jail Committee considered the option of renovating and adding on to the existing facility. Because the existing facility is on a limited site, there does not appear to be a viable long-term design solution to accommodate the twenty (20) year need. Further, the existing configuration of the existing jail does not lend itself to a staff efficient expansion. The existing inefficiencies cannot be solved with a renovation. Any expansion and renovation of the existing facility would simply compound the issues that currently exist. This includes the maintenance challenges. While there is a likely a way to simply add space and beds to the existing facility, the project would not result in a cost effective, operationally efficient, functional facility and will not serve the county for the next twenty (20) years. This option is not recommended.

PROPOSED SOLUTION CONFIGURATION

The proposed solution should utilize an “indirect supervision” podular housing design. This configuration provides multiple cell blocks, including cells, dormitories and dayrooms around a centrally located control station. Direct visibility into the dayrooms and the cell fronts is achieved through one-way glass from the second level control room. The indoor-outdoor recreation spaces will also be observable from this location as well. The cell blocks would generally consist of prefabricated, steel, tiered cells or dormitories coated in polyurea with a mezzanine walkway. The cells are positioned so that a continuous rear mechanical chase, outside the secure perimeter, is available for easy maintenance. Extending from the elevated control areas will be an elevated corridor with one-way glass for observation into other components like programming space, honor dorms and video courts. Refer to Appendix E for more information on indirect supervision, podular housing design.

PROPOSED SOLUTION BED COUNT

In 2018, Jefferson County has averaged over 150 inmates and has had a population over 160 on several occasions. Based on the classification factor (20%) and requirements that were discussed earlier, this jail population requires approximately 200 beds today. As mentioned, there does not appear to be alternative programs or other opportunities to relieve overcrowding and there are no other indicators that the jail population will stop growing. Therefore, it is important to consider the projected need of the facility.

Jefferson County Jail Feasibility Study

Based on historical trends (2007 – 2017), it is projected that the Jefferson County Jail population will approach 250 inmates in 2037. With the twenty percent (20%) classification factor, this will require just over 300 beds. Based on this, RQAW Corporation and the Jail Committee recommend an approximately 300 rated bed facility that will consist of cells and dormitory spaces.

PROPOSED SOLUTION CLASSIFICATION

The new housing pods should consist of cell blocks that meet the classification demands that are not available within the existing facility. The jail staff provided a general breakdown (provided in Appendix A) that shows ten (10) different classifications for today's jail population within the rated bed housing. The design should limit any one dayroom to no more than thirty-two (32) inmates and no fewer than twelve (12) with an approximate average of twenty-four (24) inmates. The design should also include dormitories with no more than ten (10) beds. This gives the county an opportunity to house inmate workers and implement a recovery block and detox ward, further enhancing the county's ability to respond to the drug crisis. Other classifications that would be required in the new facility would include spaces in intake and booking. These classifications include padded cells, medical isolation and holding. The intent of the proposed design is to no longer simply "warehouse" inmates; the expansion will be designed to enhance the county's ability to rehabilitate inmates. Refer to the Architectural Space Program in Appendix D for additional information.

OPERATIONALLY EFFICIENT DESIGN

The proposed plan for the new facility is designed to be extremely operationally efficient. First, central control is located on an elevated secure level. These elevated control locations also provide direct sight lines into the blocks and therefore enable a minimal number of staff the ability to observe a large number of beds. This level would also include restrooms and break areas or offices so that staff does not need to move out of this area for these purposes. Next, nearly everything that an inmate requires is available within the housing pods including but not limited to programming space, video courts, segregation, padded cells, indoor/outdoor recreation, medical exam rooms and contact visitation space (attorney, clergy, etc.). Also included in the pods are staff spaces for report writing and meetings. Refer to Appendix F to review the Conceptual Design.

The intent of this design is to limit the amount of movement for staff and inmates. By doing so, the required staff is kept to a minimum and inmate/staff safety is maximized. This is further enhanced by the opportunity to keep all inmates in Jefferson County, thus limiting the future need for transport officers to travel out of county. Refer to the Operational Budgets and Staffing Analysis provided in Appendix G for more information.

CONCLUSION

Through this study, it is apparent that the jail population of Jefferson County is not going to reduce and that there are serious classification and programming space issues with the existing facility. The proposed solution of a new facility with approximately 300 beds not only addresses both items but does so in the most operationally efficient manner. The spaces that are proposed will not only enhance the opportunity to reduce recidivism but will also increase staff and inmate safety and meet the short-term and long-term detention housing needs of the county.

It is anticipated that the proposed solution (296 beds) will have a hard construction cost of approximately $23MM – $25MM with a total project cost of approximately $28MM - $30MM. However, the Team is experienced at tailoring these solutions to required budgets. The design team has already identified options and alternates that will enable the county to build out 265 beds and leave shell space for at least an additional thirty-five (35) beds for a total project cost of $25MM. These amounts are preliminary budget numbers and should be updated periodically due to forecasted escalation in the construction market (tariffs, limited resources, etc.).

Jail Population, Classification and Future Need

- Current Jail Population: 150 total inmates
- Classification inefficiencies exist because the number of available beds in a particular housing unit will rarely match the number of inmates that should be housed in that unit
- Jail should be sized with extra capacity to allow for classification inefficiencies. Therefore, a jail is at full capacity when 80% occupied
- $150 / .80 = 188$ beds required to meet current needs
- The jail has 109 rated beds (not including holding, medical, etc.)
- A simple linear projection indicates a need for about 250 beds. To allow for classification inefficiencies, this population would require 313 beds ($250 / .8$), not including medical, holding, etc.
- The pilot program for pre-trial assessments that has been implemented in the county has not decreased the number of inmates; it has ensured that the “right” people are in jail
- House Bill 1006 (discussion)

JEFFERSON COUNTY

Analytics Summary

- Current County Population

2010: 32,428 people according to the latest census (32,565 Wikipedia 2017)

2040: 35,000 is an estimated increase of 8%

Other Counties in Indiana with the same population have jail capacities over 200 beds

- Average Daily population

2017: 140 inmates (150 inmates are typical today)

2037: 250 (56% increase)

The jail population has doubled in the last seven (7) years

The jail has been significantly and consistently overcrowded in the past 5 years

- Average Length of Stay (ALOS)

2017: 185 days yearly average

2037: 270 days is an estimated projection

Projections show an increase of 46% on the ALOS

Analytics Summary

- Jail Admissions

2017: 93 Male 36 Females

2037: Male population projection should be relatively level and Females significantly increase

Projection reflects the significant increase in female inmates with a 20 year projected increase of 81%

- Criminal Court New Filings

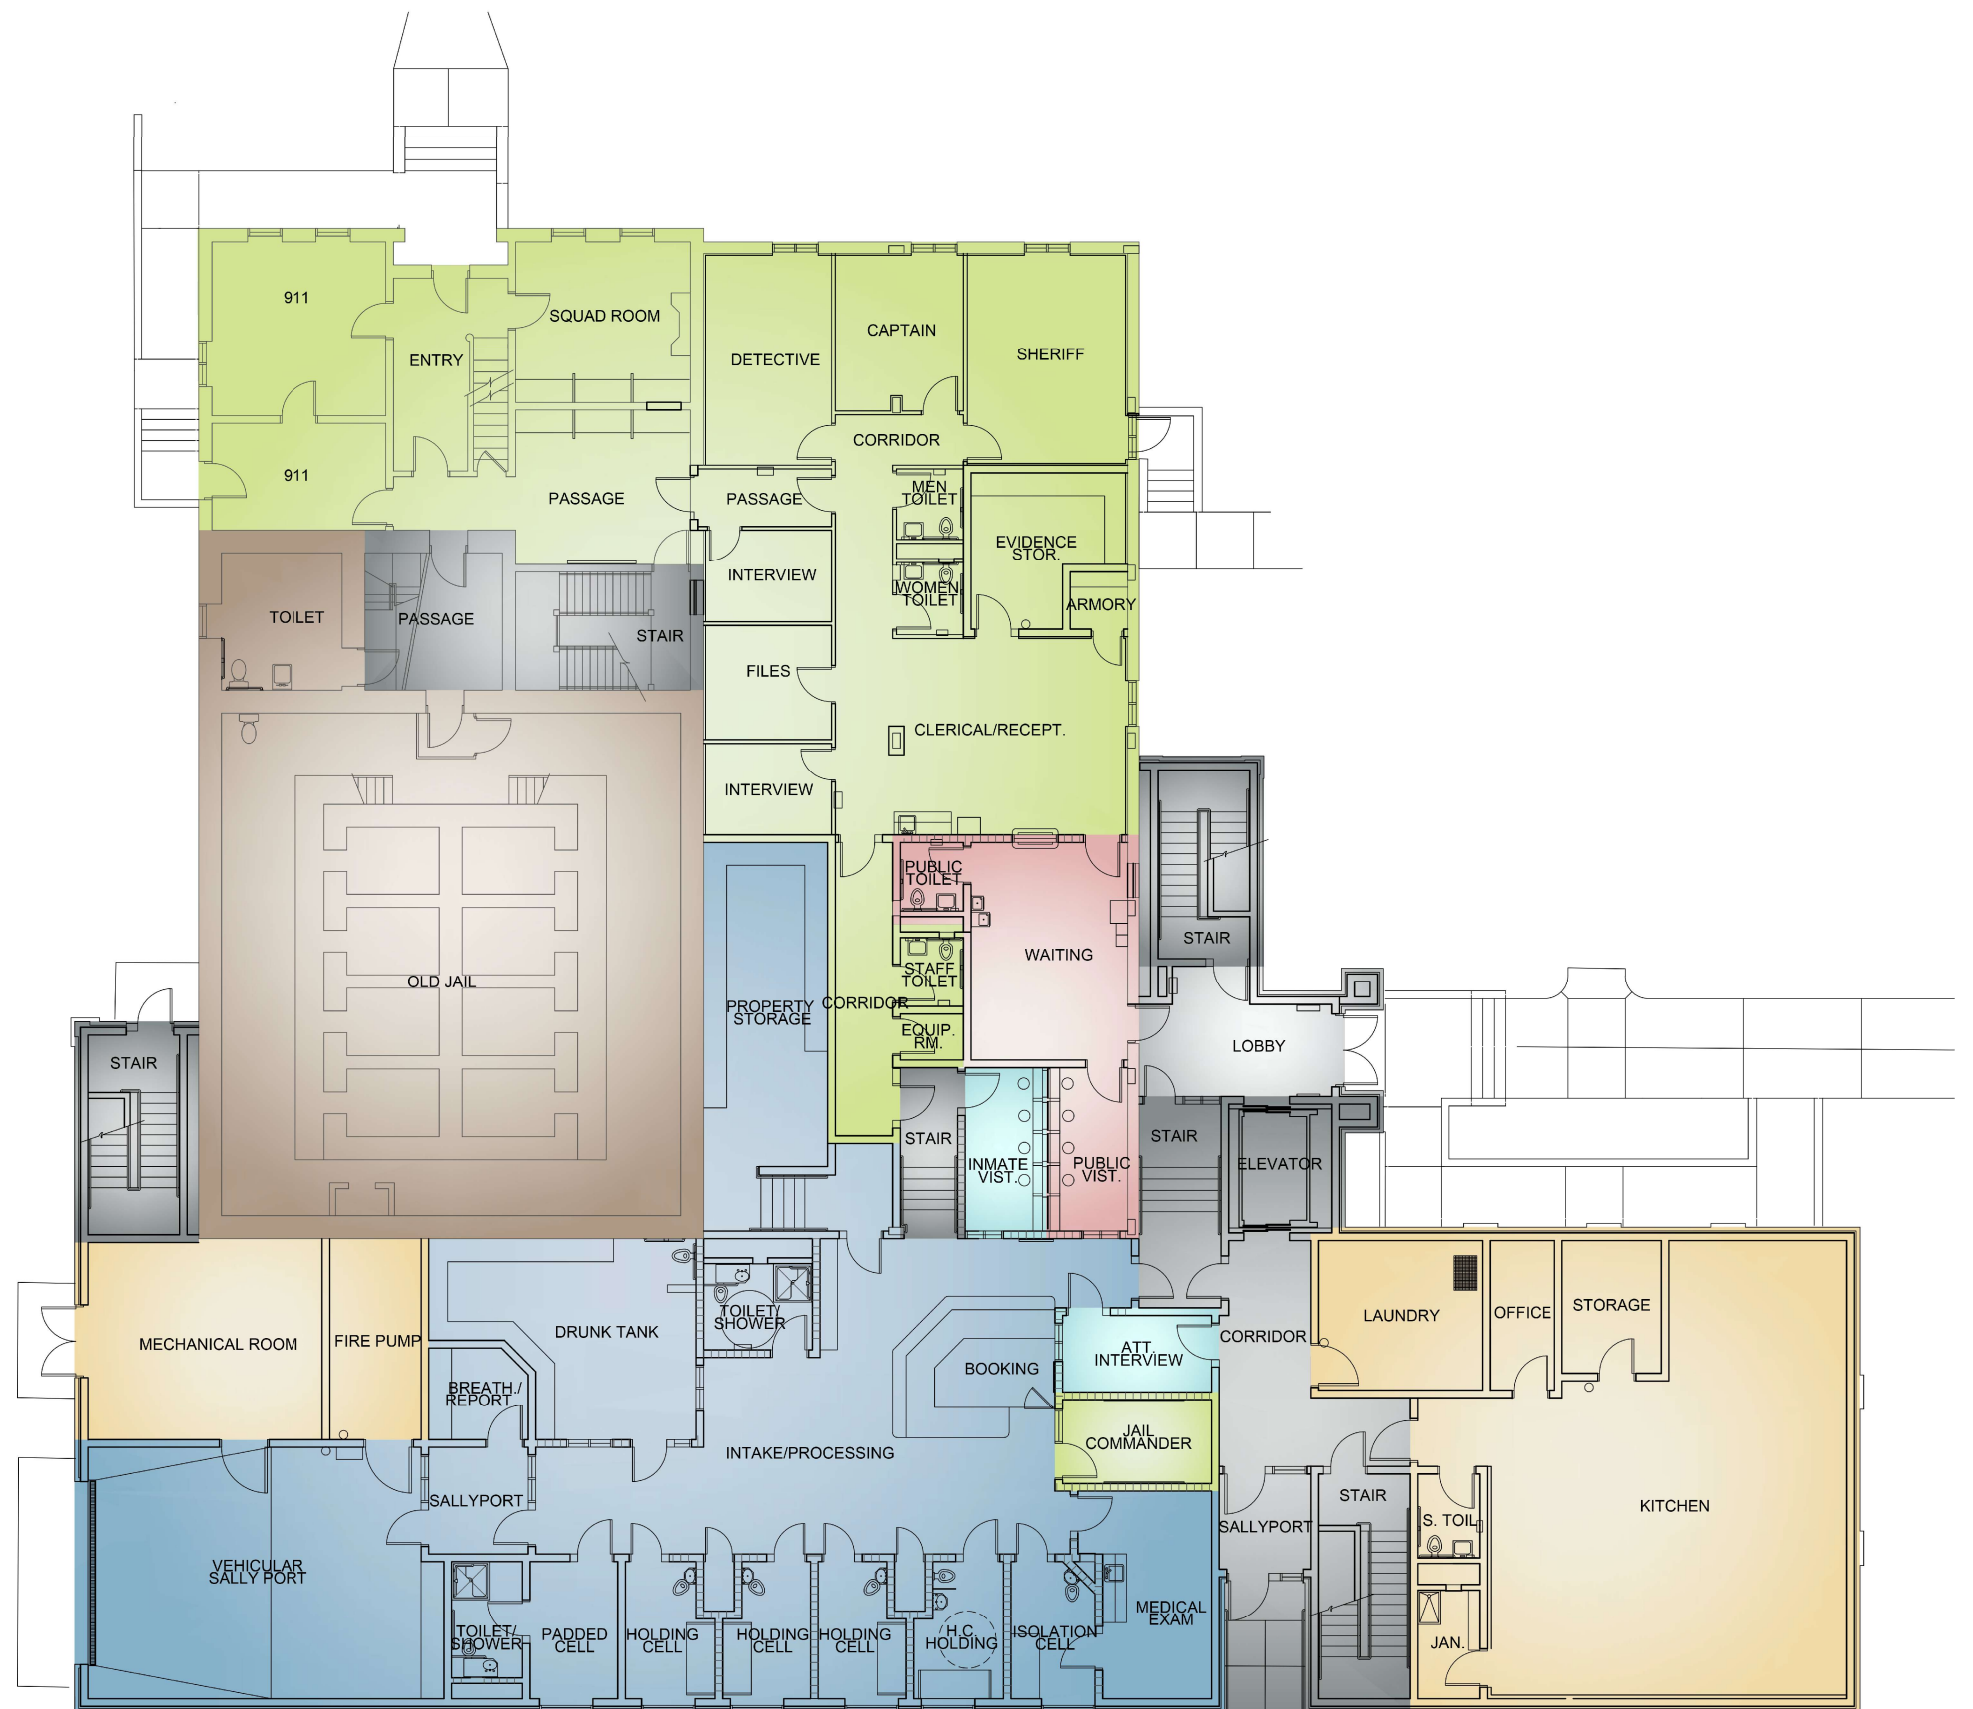

2017: 518 Misdemeanor & 560 Felonies

2037: 498 Misdemeanor & 635 Felonies as an estimated projection

The trend indicates that the seriousness of offenses is increasing

JAIL DEFICIENCIES

In touring the existing Jefferson County Jail and reviewing jail inspection reports from the State Jail Inspector, the following list of jail deficiencies has been prepared. The following list indicates the deficiencies of the jail compared to American Correctional Association Standards for Local Detention Facilities and Indiana Jail Rules.

DEFICIENCIES

1. The jail facility design does not facilitate continuous personal contact between staff and inmates in the housing unit.
2. The facility design does not allow for the proper classification of inmates.
3. Inmate housing units, recreation areas and dayrooms do not allow for continuous staff observation.
4. Inmate population exceeds the jail's rated capacity.
5. Cells are not single occupancy or have proper square footage.
6. Dayroom spaces do not provide adequate area for the number of inmates.
7. No indoor exercise area is provided (utilized for housing).
8. No contact visitation area is provided.
Visitation area is inadequate (when used for housing).
9. No classrooms are provided (utilized for housing).
10. Kitchen space is inadequate for the number of projected meals served.
11. Adequate storage areas are not provided.
12. No commissary space is provided – utilized for multipurpose space.
13. Adequate staff areas are not provided. Clerical and administrative areas are undersized.
14. Only one (1) medical isolation cells is provided and it is used for segregation.
15. No segregation cells are provided.
16. Booking area is inadequate:
Not enough holding cells
Only one (1) group holding
No classification opportunities
Inadequate storage of inmate property for growth
17. Only one (1) padded cell.
18. There are not enough beds for all inmates housed – portable bunks are used on the floor
19. The facility is insufficiently staffed for the number of inmates.
20. The facility has 109 rated beds and typically houses around 150 – 160 inmates.
21. There is only one block available to house female inmates.
22. There are not enough blocks of appropriate sizes to provide for the classification needs

Unless comments to the contrary are received within seven (7) days of the issue date of these minutes, the minutes will be assumed to be correct as written.

- There are 156 in jail today and the facility is rated for 109
- A Drug Task Force was started this year in Patrol (Sheriff's Office)
- There is one person in the facility that has been there, pre-sentencing, for two (2) years (this can skew the Average Length of Stay, ALOS, number)
- There are other that are over one (1) year (this can skew the ALOS number)
- The first quarter ADP (Average Daily Population) is 146 inmates
- We have noticed that there was a spike in the numbers in 2010 – we have not heard any explanation for this. This year can skew the projections.
- Superior Court – with court layout, the inmates sit directly in front of the public
- On Mondays and Fridays, there are approximately twenty (20) inmates in court for initial hearings.
- An isolation cell in booking has been used to house a juvenile that has been waived to adult but is still under eighteen (18)
- Inmate workers are allowed to use indirect visitation
- When the population is high, the inmate side of indirect visitation has been used for housing. A mattress and “stack-a-bunk” are put in the room and they have to notify a jailer when they need to use the restroom.
- The facility has remote Securus video visitation. The two (2) public consoles in the facility and remote video visitation are available Saturday/Sunday 9.00am to 9.00pm.
- The classroom/programming space is used to house inmate workers
- Recreation space is used for classification (currently housing sex offenders)
- The space originally designated for Commissary is being used as a multipurpose space – training, meetings (NA, AA, church, etc.)
- Upper dorm is used as an Honor Dorm (inmate workers are selected from this dorm)
- PC = Protective Custody – the block below the upper dorm is used for this.
- Stanley – they use local IT if there is an access control issue – Stanley typically takes up to forty-eight (48) hours if they're called.
- E and F blocks are above administration – the inmates have flooded fixtures on purpose; therefore, the jail installed flush controls in the control room – inmates have to call to have toilets flushed.
- Pre-honor area – 4 man cells except last two (2), which have three (3)
- Other side – eight (8) individual segregation cells

- Female dorm maxed out at twenty-four (24)
- Major issues include: inmates have access to sprinkler heads and windows, there are multiple levels that staff and inmates have to move between, there are dropped ceilings in some spaces that are not suitable for the current use.

Appendix C: Questionnaires & Meeting Minutes

Project Name: Jefferson County Jail Study

Date Held: 3/14/18

Organizer: Eric Weflen

Date Issued: 5/14/18

Topic: General Study Discussion/Overview

Attendees: Refer to attached Attendance Sheet

Unless comments to the contrary are received within seven (7) days of the issue date of these minutes, the minutes will be assumed to be correct as written.

- Study Goals
 - Assessment of current building's systems, space, staffing and other elements
 - Define a 20-year capacity; space and staff requirements
 - Site selection for a future facility (assessment of three sites determined by the county, in addition to the existing site)
 - Jefferson Proving Ground: Parcel Numbers 39-08-03-000-001.001-006; 39-08-02-000-002.001-006 and 39-03-35-000-005.001-010
 - State Hospital Grounds – Parcel Number: 39-08-34-000-001.000-007
 - St Rd 62 – 3550 Clifty Drive, 47250; Parcel Number: 39-08-31-000-028.000-006
 - St Rd 62 – 1200 Clifty Drive, 47250; Parcel Number: 39-08-21-000-012.000-007
 - Estimate total project cost for a future facility
 - Recommendations on funding sources and delivery system options
 - Estimated operational costs for the proposed facility relative to the existing operational costs
 - Estimated project schedule/implementation plan of the selected project option including tasks associated with implementation
 - Public Relations – provide recommendations on best practices for engaging citizens in the process of the study.
- There are generally 140 – 150 people in jail; up to 160+ - overcrowding is the significant issue at the jail.
- In the past seven (7) years, the jail population has doubled
- The Sheriff suggested that there is a need, in planning for the future, for at least 250 beds
- The goal is to plan for the future and “do it right,” (see previous point)
- The county owns land at the old Proving Grounds (JPG)
- State Hospital grounds – there are existing buildings
- There is a grant opportunity if the County uses the Proving Grounds
- Estimated 85% of those in jail are due to some drug related issue
- Female population has been increasing – there were 36 recently
- Lifespring, AA, Centerstone, HSE workforce development – faith based programs available at the jail.
- There is no Work Release available through Community Corrections

- There should be space made available in any new design to incorporate a jail to work program (dormitory)
- There is a need for additional space to house intoxicated women when they are booked into the jail – segregated holding.
- There is a need for more Training Rooms
- The inability to properly classify is an issue at the jail facility
- There is a need for space to house juveniles separately that have been waived to adult court
- Spaces are needed to properly respond to the needs to the mentally ill, including padded cells and counseling space.
- Medical isolation space is needed – what space there is now is used for housing juveniles
- Any new facility should look for ways to leverage the built environment to reduce recidivism (programming space, honor dorms/worker dorms with softer components, daylighting, etc.)
- There is a need for more Deputy work space – squad room/office space
- The County needs more secure storage/large evidence
- A new facility should incorporate a large vehicular sallyport
- Space to accommodate video court/arraignment
- The primary point of contact for the County is Commissioner David Bramer
- Items the County needs to provide
 - Available sites (completed)
 - All budgets that pertain to the jail and a point of contact to help identify monies that are dedicated to the facility or operation of the facility (staff, utilities, medical, etc.)
 - Questionnaires – have not received probation
 - Interviews/Discussions – have not completed probation

Date Held: 5/7/18

Organizer: Eric Weflen

Date Issued: 5/14/18

Topic: Court Services Discussion

Attendees: Amber Finnegan, Shelby Bear, Eric Weflen (RQAW)

Unless comments to the contrary are received within seven (7) days of the issue date of these minutes, the minutes will be assumed to be correct as written.

- Court Services – has approximately 300 participants (has been consistent over the last few years) – including pretrial the number is just under 500
- Court Services has identified seventeen (17) inmates that they recommend be released – the Prosecutor sets the bond amount and the Judges approve (or reject)
- Amber came from Bartholomew County where they use Evidence Based Decisions – she has been implementing this in Jefferson County over the past seven (7) years including but not limited to:
 - Requesting the Court place felons with Community Corrections as a condition of probation for the purposes of giving the defendant a realm of assessments, supervising them according to the level of risk and providing/referring them programming as needed.
 - Facilitating a number of gender-based cognitive-based programming and substance abuse education for participants. This includes: Moral Reconition Therapy; Moving On (a women's program); Stop Abuse for Everyone (SAFE – for those convicted of domestic violence); Coping with Anger; Courage to Change and PRIME for Life (substance abuse education)
 - Handling violations internally using a Violation Matrix – taking into account the seriousness of the original charge, the seriousness of the violation, the defendants proximal and distal goals, and the defendants stabilizing and destabilizing factors to come up with an appropriate behavior response that will (hopefully) facilitate behavior change. It also provides sanctions without having to involve the Court.
 - Providing purposeful case management appointments. Each interaction with the defendant strives to provide cognitive interventions, behavior responses (good and bad), problem-solving and other accountability and social skills.
 - Conducting continuous quality assurance measures on all practices. Each case manager and program facilitator has monthly/quarterly file audits along with direct observations of appointments, assessments and groups to ensure policy and procedures are being followed.
 - Providing a collaborative treatment model with a number of treatment providers in the community. Each month the case managers meet with mental health providers and River Valley Resources to discuss clients' wrap around services they are provided.
- Jefferson County have as many in jail/programs as a medium sized county

- There are large counties around the country that have lower jail populations than Jefferson County per discussions that Amber has had at conferences, etc.
- Lifesprings – jail substance abuse program under contract; Centerstone is one also (with a mental health component) – would want to provide a minimum 20 – 25 hours but there is not enough space in the to facilitate – could provide more than this if there was space.
- Court services/these programs coordinate with homes that serve as halfway houses/transitional housing that are independently operated
- Home detention – has decreased in use; GPS monitoring is contracted, there are 22 now. Was as high as 55
- Non-suspendible minimums: Before the new criminal code went into effect, certain crimes along with a person’s criminal history stated under certain conditions, a person had to go to prison for a certain period of time. In some of those circumstances, the person could be placed on home detention in lieu of going to prison. The change of the criminal code has decreased the amount of non-suspendible minimums sentences.
- The use of dayreporting has increased – can be monitored
- Group Therapy – substance abuse: refer out to Centerstone and Lifespring; offer programming; Prime for Life – education; Moving On (female cognitive program), moral recognition therapy (like a 12 step program); anger management, SAFE – domestic violence program, Courage to Change; the case managers are provided by Courts Services
- Community Transition Program (CTP)The court and prosecutor ensure the offender is eligible for the CTP program. Offenders with a Level 6 or 5 Felony (or D or C Felony) are automatically released to CTP unless DOC receives an order from the Court denying the defendant’s release. Offenders with a B or A felony are automatically denied CTP unless DOC receives an order from the Court approving the defendant’s release. Felons convicted of a Level 4-1 offense must receive a court order to be accepted into the CTP. Community Corrections will make a recommendation to the Court for CTP release based upon a number of factors which includes, but is not limited to the following:
 - The seriousness of the crime- violent and sex offenses are not recommended for placement.
 - The behavior of the offender while incarcerated at IDOC
 - Whether or not the offender utilized the programming offered through IDOC while incarcerated.
 - Past behavior of the offender if on community supervision
 - The living situation of the offender if released.

The Court may order the offender in the program if eligible. CTP clients will be monitored by electronic monitoring during the component supervision. We average 3-5 people per month in this program.
- Drug court – there is an opportunity for more to participate in the program; Judge Hensley runs this 2-year program
- Court Services just got funding for a diversion program
- Some inmates wait in jail while attorneys attempt to get “better deals.”
- Diversion: Courts Services has just been provided IDOC funding for a felony diversion program that will be starting later this summer. The prosecutor’s office can offer a defendant a diversion agreement that states if they complete the requirements of the diversion agreement (treatment, community services, not getting a new offense, etc), that at the end of the term (which can be 6 months to a few years) the charges are dismissed. We are in the process of developing this program so the specifics are not yet documented, but the goal of the program would be to have these people identified early so a diversion agreement can be made early in the criminal justice process to avoid clogging up the system.

- Pre-trial assessments – will not decrease the number in jail but will ensure that the right people are in jail.
- There is a need for more/better space for transitional planning – be able to plan employment and a safe place to live
- There is a need for more space for education

Topic: Courts/Judges Discussion

Attendees: Judge Hensley, Eric Weflen (RQAW)

Unless comments to the contrary are received within seven (7) days of the issue date of these minutes, the minutes will be assumed to be correct as written.

- August 2017 through April 2018 the Average Length of Stay (ALOS) reached a high of 216; this dropped to 97 in April (further discussion is needed in regards to cause of high ALOS – it has been mentioned that there are several inmates that have been in the facility from one to two years)
- Jefferson County is part of the pilot program for pre-trial release:
 - Grant provided as part of Court Services
 - Started January 1, 2017
 - County has tracked the assessments of each inmate
 - The program includes things like “text notification” for reminders of court dates
 - There has not been a big change in the number of “failures to appear” and reoffenders
 - The program could result in fewer in jail because some inmates do not have to pay a bond
- In 2015, the caseload in the county required 5.5 attorneys; in January 2017, that number was 7.9 – it seems to have stabilized.
- The county contracts for Public Defenders
- There has been an increase in F5
- There is a need for more program space – Lifespring, Ivy Tech (education), more meeting space for attorneys
- There is typically no more than twenty (20) in the Drug Court program
- Community Corrections functions like an intensive Probation program
- Direct commitments to Community Corrections are very few
- In the 1990s, the jail would be crowded with fifty (50) inmates
- There are not people in jail that do not need to be
- Alcohol or drugs play a part in most crimes/reasons for being in jail.

Project Name: Jefferson County Jail Study

Date Held: 5/7/18

Date Issued: 5/14/18

Topic: Prosecutor Discussion

Attendees: David Sutter, Eric Weflen (RQAW)

Unless comments to the contrary are received within seven (7) days of the issue date of these minutes, the minutes will be assumed to be correct as written.

- The Prosecutor was appointed in January 2018
- Pretrial pilot has resulted in low offenders being released without bond – this might have an impact on ALOS – those in jail are serious offenders (“the right people are in jail”)
- IPAC – Prosecutor talked to them about if moving cases through the system more quickly would reduce the number in jail – IPAC said “no” (I would like more information on this)
- There are not enough places for attorneys to meet with their clients in the jail – this has an impact on the ability to move cases through the system
- The jail should utilize video arraignment – there is a convenience to the jail being next to the courthouse
- The volume at Superior Court is significant and there is no public/inmate separation
- The county is getting a Magistrate in July 2019 – will be delegated with initial hearings – needs to be confirmed by the Judges (does it make sense to provide this space at a new jail facility?)
- There is a third courtroom in the Courthouse now.
- There needs to be better space for juveniles waived to adult with a serious crime
- There is a significant methamphetamine problem in the county – drug treatment should be a component to any proposed facility, to the degree possible.

B. Job descriptions

Jail Commander (Major)

J101

Under general direction, supervises the corrections and administration activities of the jail operations division within the Sheriff's Department; applies law enforcement techniques for effective jail operations; supervises overall personnel; and performs related duties as required. The Jail Commander should have knowledge of principles and practices of correction management including care, detention, and release of prisoners, modern institutional facility management practices; laws and regulations affecting the operations of a corrections facility; correctional facility procedures; public personnel management and supervisory principles and practices including public safety practices and employee relations; strategic planning methods and tools; and principles and practices of budget administration.

Jail Sergeant

J103 & J104

The Sergeant at the Jefferson County Jail is responsible for the overall safety and security of the facility in the absence of the Jail Commander and Lieutenant; charged with the care and custody of the inmates and staff supervised. This requires close and courteous interaction with inmates under normal and potentially volatile circumstances. The Sergeant is responsible to oversee daily operations of the jail in multiple capacities. Many tasks require daily contacts with both staff and inmates. Overseeing facility security and shift supervision and assisting administration with establishing and carrying out facility goals and performing other duties as assigned.

Jail Lieutenant

J102

Second in command of the Jail facility, the Lieutenant oversees the classification of all inmates. He/she has direct supervision over Shift Sergeants and other jail personnel. He/she will act as the liaison between various courts and probation departments. He/she ensures that all jail personnel complete their required training. Transports inmates to other facilities, to court, and to medical appointments; conducts security inspections, and responds to medical and security emergencies. When needed, resolves complaints from inmates, officers, and the general public. Performs other related duties as assigned.

Jail Officer

Supervise inmates in housing units and those segregated for administrative or punitive measures; instruct inmates in housekeeping and sanitation; supervise the issuance of clothing and other personal effects to inmates. Make periodic patrols of quarters and initiate counts of inmates at regular and irregular intervals; maintain control and discipline including use of physical restraint and restraining devices; prevent the introduction of contraband into the institution. Check inmate mail for possible contraband; maintain a periodic patrol either inside or outside the institution to ensure the security and integrity of the institution. Monitor, supervise and screen inmate visitor traffic; observe traffic in and around the area of the Jail. Observe for signs of disorder or tension and report such observations to a higher authority; counsel with inmates regarding institutional, domestic or emotional adjustment problems.

RE: Jefferson County Jail Assessment Study

Dear Mr. Weflen,

I have been gathering the information that you requested in your March 14, 2018 letter regarding the jail and court system in Jefferson County. The Jefferson County Prosecutor's Office uses Indiana Prosecutor Case Management System (PCMS) to facilitate the full spectrum of tasks performed by officer personnel from the initiation of a case to its closing. I have PCMS reports for Jefferson County criminal cases from 2012-2017 that are attached to this letter. I am still waiting on additional reports from the Senior System Analyst for PCMS, and I will forward them on when they are available.

1) What trends are occurring that affect Jefferson County criminal cases?

The 2014 changes to the Indiana criminal code have affected criminal cases in Jefferson County. Penalties were changed, particularly regarding drug cases and major felony cases, which have resulted in less minimum non-suspendible time to the Indiana Department of Corrections for offenders. Thus enforcement has become significantly more challenging.

With the exception of 2012 when 1,302 cases were filed, the number of cases filed each year in Jefferson County has been between 972 and 1,083 cases per year. The attached Felony Statistics Summary Reports from 2012-2017 show increases in the number of possession of methamphetamine cases filed. In 2012, there were 18 possession of methamphetamine cases filed. In 2017, 140 possession of methamphetamine cases were filed. The number of opioid cases has decreased from 2012-2017.

2) Please provide historical statistical data collected by the Prosecuting Attorney's Office showing trends in cases such as:

a. Felony Prosecutions

See attached Felony Statistics Summary Reports from 2012-2017.

b. Misdemeanor Prosecutions

See attached Cases by Court Summaries from 2012-2017.

c. Plea Agreements

I am still waiting on reports from PCMS administrator.

d. Sentencing Patterns

I am still waiting on reports from PCMS administrator.

3) What programs for alternative sentencing are currently available in Jefferson County?

Jefferson County currently has Drug Court, Probation, Community Corrections, Pretrial Diversions, Home Detention and Community Service available as alternatives to incarceration.

4) Are any of these programs limited in capacity to such an extent that they cannot be used for some qualified individuals?

The above mentioned programs are not limited in capacity.

5) Are there programs that do not exist now that would be a useful option for prosecuting/sentencing in Jefferson County?

A community corrections jail component would be a useful option for prosecution/sentencing in Jefferson County.

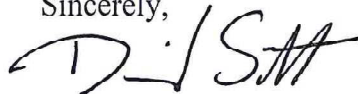

6) If the capacity of the jail were larger would any of the alternative programs be used less often?

The Prosecutor's Office is uncertain whether additional jail space would impact the use of alternative programming.

7) Any other pertinent information that you feel is relevant.

If there is any additional information that would be helpful to you, please do not hesitate to contact me. My email address is david.sutter@jeffersoncounty.in.gov. I look forward to working with you on this study.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'D. Sutter', with a stylized flourish at the end.

RE: Jefferson County Jail Assessment Study

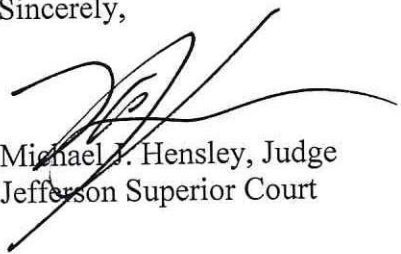

Dear Representative:

Pursuant to your March 14, 2018 request, please find the following response.

1. Please provide statistical history of the past ten (10) years for the following:
 - A. Misdemeanor Case Filings and Depositions.
 - B. Felony Case Filings and Dispositions.
Attached are the numbers. Statistics are also available from the Indiana Courts Website.
2. Please indicate major factors that, in your opinion, have helped increase the jail population over the years.
 - A. Increase in drug crimes. The number of charges filed per year may be static but the level of charges has increased dramatically.
 - B. Level 6 felonies for the most part cannot serve their sentences at the Department of Corrections and must serve them at jail.
3. What programs for alternative sentencing and/or diversion for adults or juveniles are currently available in Jefferson County? These programs could include:
 - A. Work release
 - B. Probation
 - C. Community service
 - D. Weekend Sentencing
 - E. Home detention
 - F. Other
A – E are available.

4. Are any of these available programs limited in capacity to such an extent that they cannot be used for all individuals that qualify?
Weekend sentencing contributes to jail crowding.
5. Of the programs that do not currently exist, are there any that would be appropriate for some sentenced individuals in Jefferson County?
Additional treatment and educational services.
6. Are there currently sentenced individuals in alternative programs that are there because of lack of bed space in the jail?
Unknown.
7. If the capacity of the jail were larger would any of the alternative programs be used less often?
No.
8. Are there any projections for growth of the number of probationers in Jefferson County that your office or others have made?
No.
9. Would an increase in beds available in either the jail or the juvenile detention center decrease the number of probationers?
Unknown.

Sincerely,

Michael J. Hensley, Judge
Jefferson Superior Court

Re: Jefferson County Jail Assessment Study

Dear Ms. Finnegan

RQAW Corporation (RQAW) is very pleased to have been retained by the Jefferson County Board of Commissioners to provide a Jail Assessment Study.

To make this study as meaningful as possible, we will require information from you concerning the jail, community corrections, probation programs in Jefferson County and alternative sentencing options available. This information includes:

1. What programs for alternative sentencing and diversion for adults or juveniles are currently available in Jefferson County? These programs could include:

- a. Work Release
- b. Sheriff Work Detail
- c. Community Service
- d. Weekend Sentencing
- e. Home Detention (tethering)
- f. Drug Testing
- g. Substance Abuse Programs
- h. Group Therapy
- i. Transition Programs
- j. Other

2. Please provide historical statistical data for all programs for the past ten (10) years whenever possible.

See Attach sheets for Court Services Numbers.

3. Are any of these available programs limited in capacity to such an extent that they cannot be used for all individuals that qualify?

NO

4. Of the programs that do not currently exist, are there any that would be appropriate for some sentenced individuals in Jefferson County?
Diversion Programs
5. Are there currently sentenced individuals in alternative programs that are there because of lack of bed space in the jail? no

We request that you provide this information as soon as possible so that we can continue our work.

If you have any questions about these issues, please do not hesitate to contact us. We look forward working with you on this study.

Sincerely,

JEFFERSON COUNTY, INDIANA

THE JEFFERSON COUNTY CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM'S VISION IS "UNITING COMMUNITY RESOURCES FOR A SAFER JEFFERSON COUNTY."

The professionals who represent our criminal justice system will reduce community harm by:

1.) Increasing Public Safety

By 2020, increase public safety by the following measures:

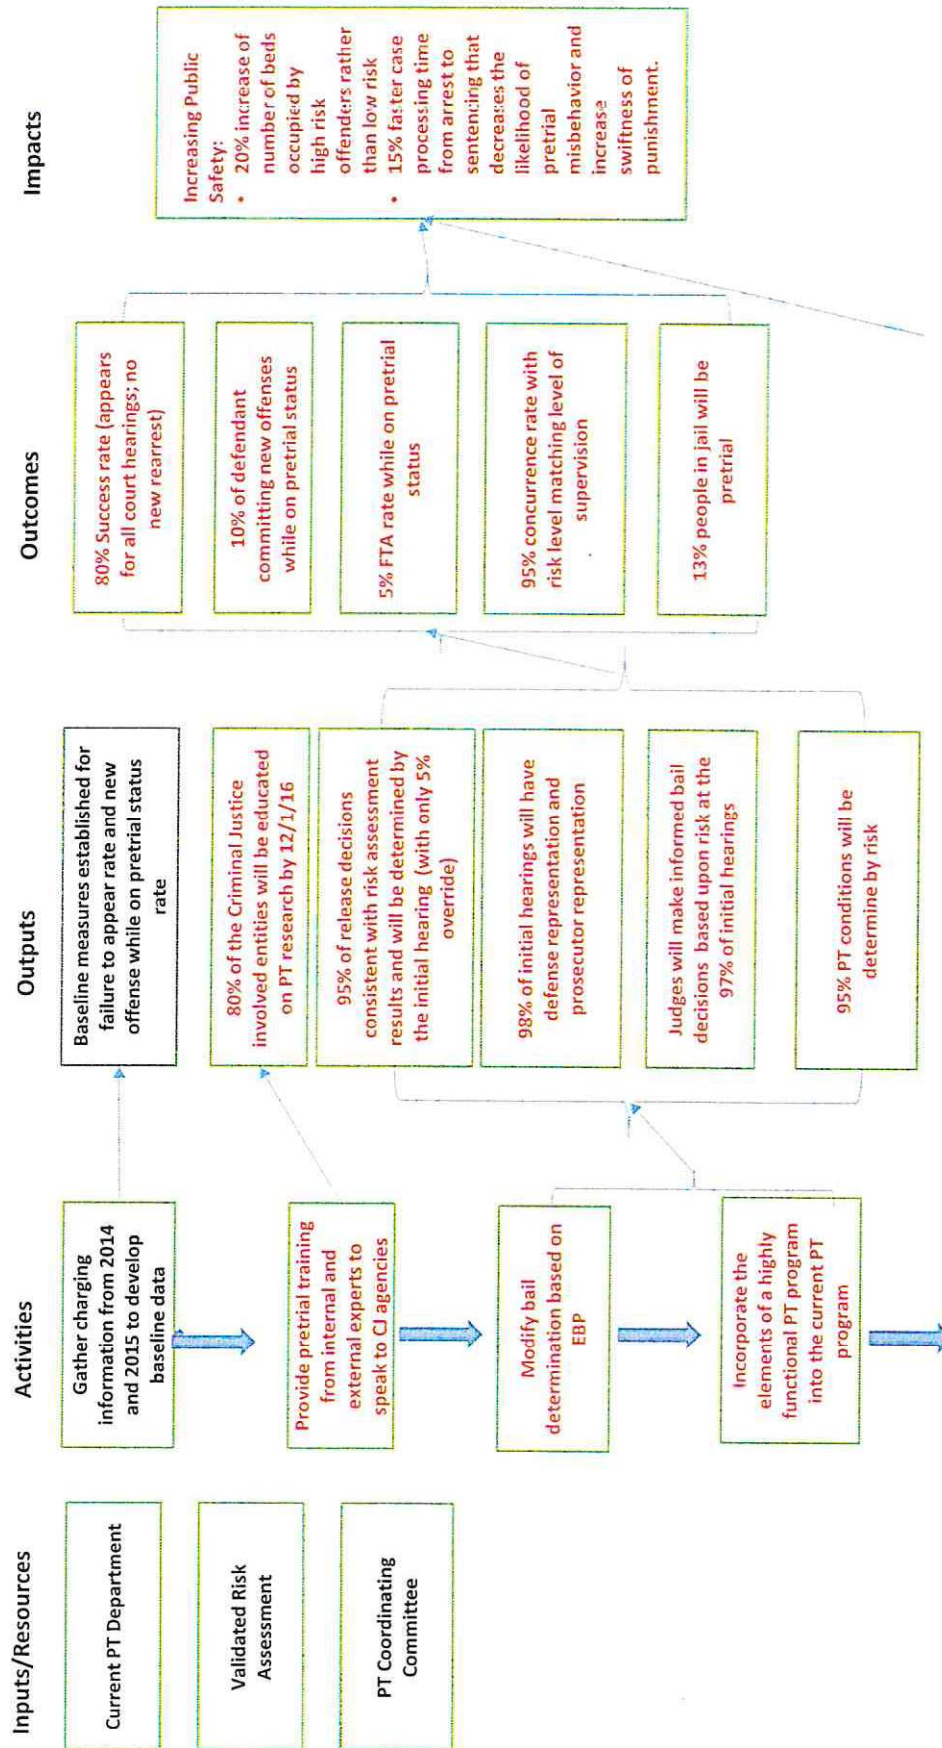

- Limiting pretrial misconduct of defendants to no more than a 5% failure to appear rate; a 10% new offense rate (the filing of any new felony or misdemeanor offense while the defendant is on bonded pretrial status) and an 80% success rate
- Increase the proportion of jail beds occupied by high risk offenders compared to low risk offenders by 20%
- Faster case processing times (shorter elapsed time from arrest to final adjudication) that decrease the likelihood of pretrial misbehavior and increase swiftness of punishment by 15%

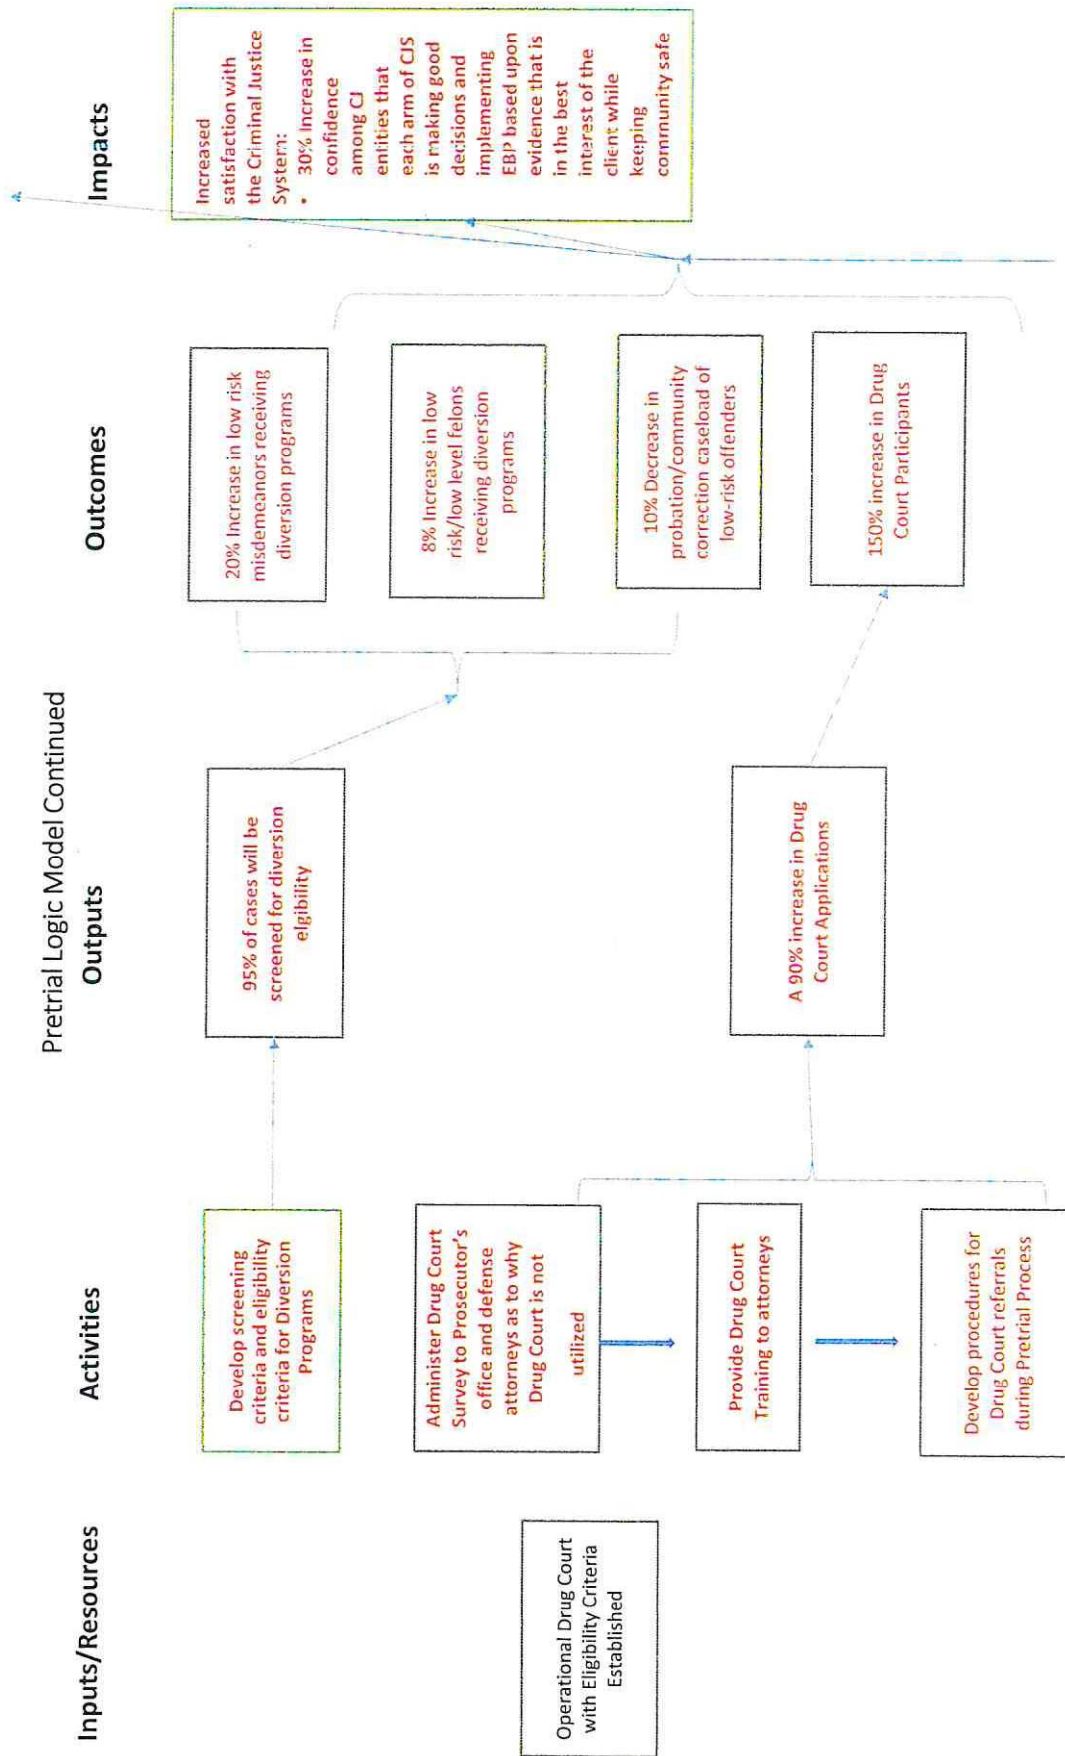

2.) Increased satisfaction with the Criminal Justice System

By 2022, increase satisfaction with the Criminal Justice System by the following measures:

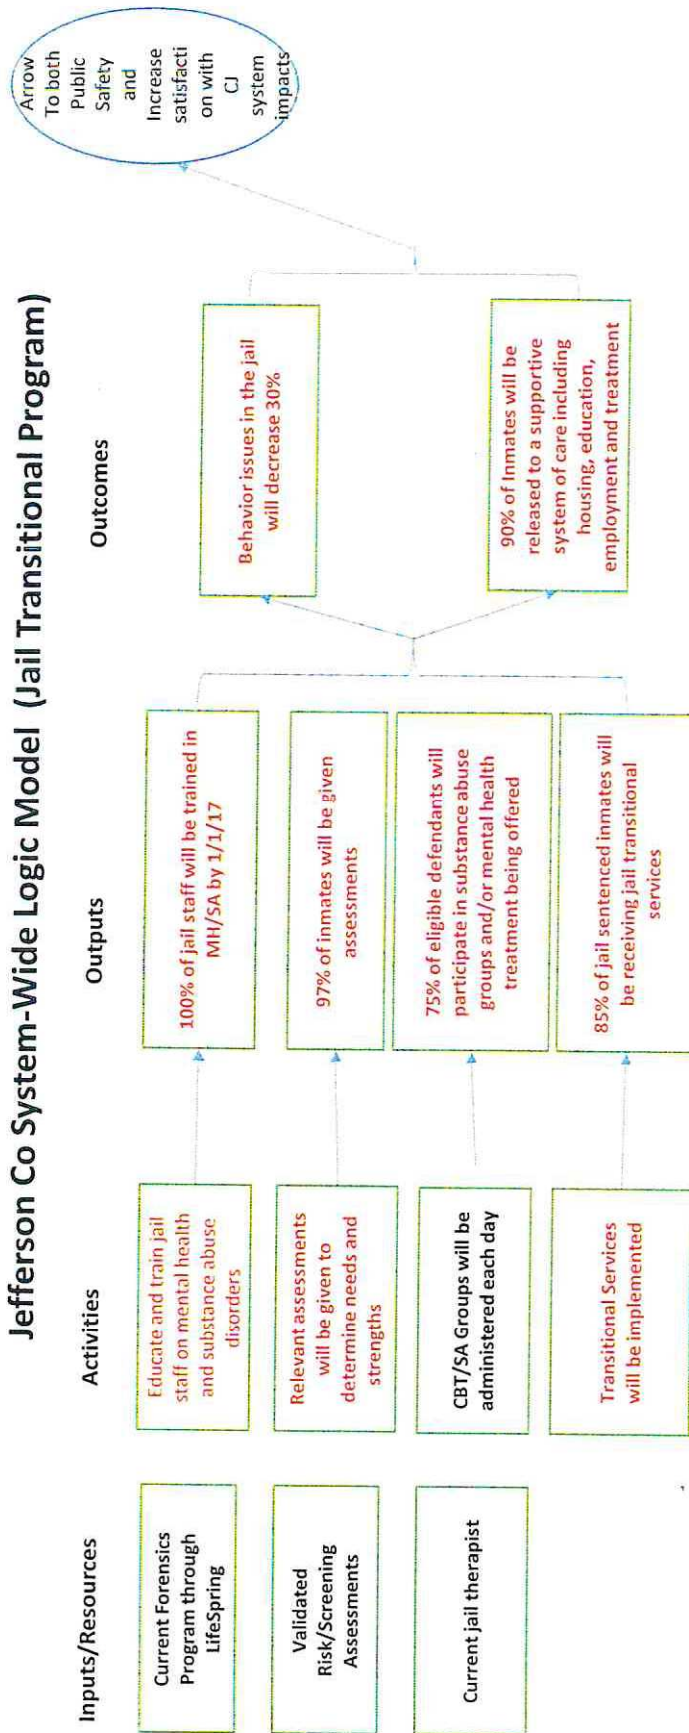

- Increasing confidence among Criminal Justice entities that each arm of the Criminal Justice System is making good decisions and implementing best practices based upon evidence that is in the best interest of the client while keeping the community safe by 30%

Re: Jefferson County Jail Study

Dear Julie Mitchell, CPO

RQAW Corporation (RQAW) is very pleased to have been retained by the Jefferson County Board of Commissioners to provide a Jail Assessment Study.

In order to make this study as meaningful as possible, we will require information from you concerning the jail, probation programs in Jefferson County and alternative sentencing options available. This information includes:

1. How many probation officers are currently on staff in Jefferson County? How many are adult probation officers? How many are juvenile probation officers?
2 adult and 2 juvenile
2. Are there plans to add more probation officers? How many?
No
3. Please provide historical statistical data to include:
4. Over the last ten (10) years, how many individuals, on the average, are on probation? How many are adult male/females? How many are juvenile male/females? Length of time on probation?
5. Are there any projections for growth of the number of probationers in Jefferson County that your office or others have made?
No that I am aware of.
6. Would an increase in beds available in either the jail or the juvenile detention center decrease the number of probationers?
We do not have a juvenile detention center in Jefferson County; I don't believe a larger jail would impact

There will be a meeting of the Planning Committee to discuss the study further. We request that you provide this information as soon as possible so that we can begin our work.

If you have any questions about these issues, please do not hesitate to contact us. We look forward working with you on this study.

Sincerely,

RQAW CORPORATION

Strategic Planning, Programming and Conceptual Design Questionnaire

Department/Division: Juvenile Probation

Responder: Julie Mitchell, Chief Probation Officer

Date of Response: _____

The following Questionnaire related to the Jefferson County Jail Study is in a word format that can be altered to expand response categories as required to complete the information requested. If there are items that you do not believe apply to your Department/Division note "Not Applicable" or "N/A" after the item.

The goal is to receive all requested Questionnaires as soon possible. If there are items that will take more time to complete or if you have questions about the information requested, please feel free to contact by phone or e-mail the designated RQAW Team member noted at the end of this document. Thank you for your assistance.

3. What are the factors that will influence your Departmental/Division growth?
- The Circuit Court Judge makes all decisions regarding staff; any changes must be sought through the Judge and approved by County Council/County Commissioners
4. Describe the space deficiencies you are currently experiencing:
- No security
 - No meeting rooms
5. On a scale of 0 (None Existent) to 10 (Adequate), how would you rate your existing space: 8

Existing Space Evaluation Methodology
Rating	Unacceptable		Unsuitable		Marginal		Adequate		Appropriate
Score:	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Score	Rating		Definition
9 - 10	Appropriate		Sufficient quantity of space; good configuration and layout; little, if any improvement required
7 - 8	Adequate		Quantity may be barely sufficient; configuration/flow are less than ideal; some renovation or expansion would enhance operations
5 - 6	Marginal		Lacks sufficient quantity of space; quality of space or both requires some expansion or renovation to achieve minimum recommended space standards
3 - 4	Unsuitable		Poor quality and quantity of space; too small; improper layout; urgently requires improvement
1 - 2	Unacceptable		Very overcrowded; numerous difficulties and inefficiencies; considered fundamentally unacceptable for continued use
0	None Existent		Space currently does not exist but is critical to minimum operational efficiency

6. Describe how these space deficiencies are adversely affecting your operations/efficiency:
- Lack of security is a concern but, luckily, our office has not experienced many threats
 - Lack of a meeting room results in moving chairs into the largest office available
 - which is not a huge issue but more of an inconvenience.
7. Are you currently experiencing any deficiencies due to a poor adjacency relationship with another department and/or user? If so, please describe:
- No

B. Programming

- Briefly discuss the duties/services your Department/Division perform and/or responsibilities and who are the major users of your services?
 - Supervise adult misdemeanor and felony offenders placed on probation
 - Supervise juvenile offenders placed on probation; also responsible for intake and placement or detention

Write PSIs and PDRs as ordered or required

- d. Drug testing, home contacts, referrals to services as ordered/necessary
- 2. Do you currently perform all your duties and responsibilities in the same building or do you have staff at a remote location? If staff are at a remote location, where and how many staff?
 - a. We are all in the same location
 - b.
 - c.
 - d.
- 3. Are you currently outsourcing any of your duties and/or responsibilities? If so, what are you outsourcing, is this anticipated to be a continuing trend and/or do you anticipating outsourcing in the future?
 - a. We refer to Community Corrections for all classes and programming
 - b. We refer to licensed treatment providers for counseling and evaluations
 - c.
 - d.
- 4. How many visitors do you typically have on a daily basis and what type?
 - a. Public: 1-2
 - b. Attorneys: 0-1
 - c. Other Department Staff: 0-5
 - d. Vendors: 0-1
 - e. Other:
 - i. Probationers - adult and juvenile - 0-50 or more depending on the day of the week
 - ii. _____
 - iii. _____
 - iv. _____
- 5. How many visitors on average do you have at any one time? 0-6
- 6. Describe you record/file storage needs (number and size of file cabinets and/or rooms, secure/non-secure) and duration you retain records by type:
 - a. All offices have a file cabinet for the POs current cases
 - b. All closed cases are moved to the locked storage area in our building
 - c. We keep all juvenile files until the offender reaches age 25 and the juvenile history can no longer be used
 - d. We keep all PSIs; all other records are maintained electronically
- 7. Describe your departments special system needs:
 - a. Information Technology:
 - i. We have a case management system used by the courts and probation
 - ii.
 - iii.
 - b. Security:
 - i. We have panic buttons in three of the five offices
 - ii.
 - iii.
 - iv.
 - c. Other:
 - i.
 - ii.

6.
7.
8.
9.
10.

9. What type of support space other than offices, work stations and record/file storage do you need to be operationally efficient?

a. Conference/meeting rooms:

- i. Number of people: No more than 10
- ii. Special amenities (A/V, other) n/a

b. Supply storage:

- i. Sufficient
- ii.

c. Evidence Storage:

- i. n/a
- ii.

d. Break room/galley:

- i. Would be nice but not necessary
- ii.

e. Reception Counter

- i. We have a reception window w/locking glass
- ii.

f. Reception/Waiting:

- i. Our waiting area is the end of the hallway where we have placed some chairs
- ii.

g. Workroom:

- i. Our clerk's office serves as our workroom
- ii.

h. Public Work Stations/Data Stations

- i. Not needed currently
- ii.

i. Other

- i. Our parking lot is designated "courthouse employees only" however, it is not enforced so we and quite often cannot park in our own lot; we have to walk to the street or to the city parking lots to our cars after dark as we are open until at least 6pm most nights and it gets dark so early in the winter. This is a security issue as we have several alleys in our immediate vicinity and do deal with violent individuals.

C. Conceptual Design

1. Briefly summarize your operational philosophies:

a. Staff:

- i. Our philosophy is to ensure the offenders placed on probation follow the court orders and refer them to appropriate classes/treatment.
- ii. We dispose of minor violations administratively
- iv. The Courts are notified of major and/or repeated violations.

b. Public:

- i. We notify victims of sentencing dates and receive victim statements for inclusion in PSI reports
- ii. We receive information from the public regarding offenders violating terms of supervision
- iii.
- iv.

c. Other Departments:

- i. We refer to outside agencies for programming or treatment
- ii. We give and receive information to involved agencies as necessary.
- iii.
- iv.

d. Other Agencies:

- i. See above
- ii.
- iii.
- iv.

e. Other:

- i.
- ii.
- iii.
- iv.

2. What departments do you need to be close to (Adjacency) to be operationally efficient?

- a. The Courts
- b.
- c.
- d.

3. Describe what spaces within your office need to be adjacent to each other to achieve operational efficiency:

- a. Our offices need to be in the same area; the CPO supervises all POs and could not do that efficiently if any office was in a different area.

- b.
- c.
- d.
- 4. What spaces do you anticipate being used by the general public; how many might use the space at any one time and what hours?
 - a. The waiting area will be used during office hours - 8 am to 6 pm most days
 - b. Anywhere from 0-10 people at a time could be in that area.
 - c.
 - d.
- 5. What spaces need public access and what level of security is anticipated?
 - a. See above
 - b.
 - c.
 - d.
- 6. Briefly discuss the existing building deficiencies that adversely affect your department's operations
 - a. Currently our office space is sufficient. The main concern is safety and security. Our office is open later than other offices, so there are times when only one person is in this building.
 - b. We have had no immediate threats (we have had some verbal) but, with the increasing number of mental health issues we are expected to deal with, in addition to the erratic behavior of some substance abusers, any security would be welcome. Increased lighting and perhaps a surveillance camera in our parking area would be helpful. We find alcohol bottles, needles, and other assorted items regularly in our parking area and around our entry door.
 - c.
 - d.
 - e.
 - f.
- 7. Other Design Comments:
 - a. A break room and a conference room would be a nice addition but would not be at the top
 - b. of my list of necessary spaces.
 - c.
 - d.

Appendix D: Architectural Space Program

FACILITY PROGRAM

The purpose of the facility program is to determine the type and quantity of space required in the new building for a constitutional facility.

This building program was developed with the experience of the RQAW team and the Sheriff's Office/Jail Administration staff and will formulate the basis for design of the new facility.

JAIL FACILITY SPACE PROGRAM

The Facility Space Program summarizes the square footages required for a 296 rated bed facility, which will be expandable in the future.

The facility will consist of the following types of spaces:

- Division A: Public
- Division B: Administration
- Division C: Patrol/Detectives
- Division D: Intake and Booking
- Division E: Housing
- Division F: Laundry/Kitchen/Commissary
- Division G: Medical
- Division H: Miscellaneous (Mechanical, Electrical, Circulation)

The division components and net square footage for each component were determined based upon Standards for Adult Local Detention Facilities, recommendations by the American Correctional Association and generally acceptable standards in adult detention planning today. The functional divisions and components are summarized as follows:

Division A: Public

The lobby and video visitation areas should be in proximity of each other with a physical separation visually monitored by the Administration Space or Central Control. Lobby components will include visitors' waiting room and visitors' restrooms, all of which will be visually controlled. All lobby components should be located outside the secure areas.

All visiting functions will be located outside the secure perimeter. All visitations will be video visitation and scheduling can be managed by the Facility Administrator. In addition, the attorney-client contact visitation space will be in this general area.

This area will be monitored directly by Administrative Spaces as well as electronic monitoring by Central Control.

Division B and C: Administration/Patrol/Detectives

The administration unit of the jail will include all management, supervision and business functions of the jail facility (e.g. purchasing, personnel management, management of food and laundry services, clerical functions, general management of inmate records and overall clerical support for the jail).

The administration area should be located to allow easy and direct public access to the Sheriff and key staff. Sheriff's Office Patrol Division, Detective Division and the like should have direct access to their vehicles and easy access to the public as well. This will be accommodated with an elevator to the lower level.

Division D: Intake and Booking

This component will contain those areas necessary for the receiving and processing of incoming inmates to the facility and for discharging inmates who have completed their stay or who are temporarily leaving the facility for court. Inmate holding should be in the immediate area of admissions with space designated for segregation and isolation. Temporary holding may be located out of the immediate proximity of the processing area, although the distance should be as short as possible to reduce staff requirements for additional movements. Inmates will enter the facility through an adjacent enclosed vehicular sallyport controlled by Central Control. However, it should be physically and visually isolated from public entrance areas. Activities will include the following:

- The Intake Area will provide short term holding for up to 24-34 inmates
- Inmate admission, initial screening and processing/booking
- Inmate processing prior to release
- Holding and processing of inmates for court appearances and for transfer to other institutions

Included in the intake process area are activities relating to official booking and identification, screening and evaluation for release, medical screening and initial classification for prisoners who will be detained.

Division E: Housing

The facility will contain a cell pod that will have eight (11) separate cell blocks. There is an option for some of the tiered blocks to be designed as dormitory housing in lieu of cells. Each cell block in the pod will include a two-story day room space. Direct visibility into the dayrooms and cell fronts is achieved with a second floor centrally located Central Control. One-way glass allows Jail staff to view all the podular housing from one location. Programming space, padded cells, medical exam spaces and interview rooms are proposed in the housing pod. This is intended to limit the travel distances of inmates when in need of these types of spaces.

Double Occupancy Cells	80 Beds
Four Person Cells	176 Beds
Dormitories	40 Beds

Totals Rated Beds	296 Beds

Division F: Laundry/Kitchen/Commissary

Appropriate space for future expansion will be accommodated in the design of these spaces. Access to deliveries will be provided and controlled by Central Control. Substantial space will be provided for cold storage and dry storage so that food may be purchased in bulk. These components will also be adjacent to inmate worker dormitories.

Division G: Medical

Medical space will be provided including a nurse's office, exam rooms and secure drug storage. The medical space will be adjacent to both intake/booking and housing in order to limit inmate movement.

Division H: Miscellaneous

Mechanical and electrical space will be added as required to support systems updating.

Notes

1. Water provided by 8" and 6" water mains in parallel in US421 R/W by Canaan Water Company.
2. The estimate is for utility extension work only and does not include any work at the jail site (i.e. screening, comminutor, site utilities, etc.). Screening and grinding for effluent from a jail can be very costly.
